1. Market Risk

Due to price fluctuations of securities invested in by the Target Fund, the value of the investment may go up as well as down. The movement in securities prices is influenced by a number of factors, which include changes in economic, political and social environment.

2. Credit Risk

This refers to the possibility that the issuer of a security will not be able to make timely payments of interest or principal repayment on the maturity date. The default may lead to a fall in the value of the Fund.

3. Profit Rate Risk

The level of interest rates has an impact on the value of investment. Any increase in rates will lead to a fall in the value of securities, thus affecting the value of the Fund.

4. Liquidity Risk

Defined as the ease with which a security can be sold at or near its fair value. This risk occurs in thinly traded or illiquid securities. Should the Fund need to sell a relatively large amount of such securities, such action itself may significantly depress the selling price.

5. Concentration Risk

Concentration risk occurs when a portfolio is overweight on a particular security, sector or asset class. As the fund invests mainly into third party collective investment scheme (CIS) and by virtue of the CIS investing in a diversified portfolio of equities as well as dynamic asset allocation strategy between equities and other financial instruments, the concentration risk is mitigated.

6. Target Fund(s) Risk

The Fund invests in third party CIS which is being managed by another Fund Manager. The CIS is carefully selected in order to ensure that the objectives of said CIS are appropriately aligned with the Fund. Nevertheless, the Fund Manager does not have control over the management of the CIS and any adverse effect on the CIS will inevitably affect the fund. In such instance, the Fund Manager may replace the CIS with another CIS which the Fund Manager considers to be more appropriate or invest directly in a diversified portfolio in order to meet the objective of the Fund. Please also refer to the Target Fund's prospectus for more detailed and comprehensive information on Target Fund specific risk.

7. Shariah Status Reclassification Risk

This risk refers to the risk that the currently held Shariah-compliant securities by the Target Fund may be reclassified to be Shariah non-compliant in the periodic review of the securities by the Shariah Advisory Council of Securities Commission Malaysia (SACSC) or the Shariah Adviser for the Target Fund. If this occurs, the value of the Target Fund may adversely affect and the Fund Manager of Target Fund will take the necessary steps to dispose of such securities in accordance with the advice from Shariah Adviser.

8. Currency Risk

Applied to foreign investment which the investment may rise or fall due to fluctuation in the foreign currencies. Adverse movement in currencies exchange rates can result in a loss to the investment.

9. Country Risk

This risk investment made by the Fund are subjected to risks specific to the country in which it invests. Such risk includes changes in a country's economic fundamentals, social and political stability, currency movement, foreign investment policies and etc. The risk may be mitigated by closely monitoring the developments in the countries in order to identify any emerging risk.

10. Sustainable Investment Risk

The selection of assets may rely on a proprietary ESG scoring process (such as the index provider's) that relies partially or totally on third party data. Data provided by third parties maybe incomplete, inaccurate or unavailable and as a result, there is a risk that the Fund Manager of Target Fund may incorrectly assess a security or issuer.

Basis of Unit Valuation

1. The assets of every fund are to be valued to determine the value at which units of a particular fund can be liquidated or purchased for investment purposes.
2. The unit price of a unit of a fund shall be determined by the Company but in any event shall not be less than the value of fund of the relevant fund (as defined below), divided by the number of units of the given fund in issue on the business day before the valuation date, and the result adjusted to the nearest one hundredth of a cent.
3. The maximum value of any asset of any fund shall not exceed the following price:
 - a. The last transacted market price at which those assets could be purchased or sold on the business day before the valuation date; or
 - b. In the case of securities for which market values are not readily available, the price at which, in our Investment Manager's opinion, the asset may have been purchased on the business day before the valuation date; plus any expenses which would have been incurred in its acquisition.
